Press Release

The Lower Moreland Township Police Department announces the arrest of two persons responsible for an armed home invasion which occurred in the 1400 block of Heaton Hill Road on May 5, 2012.

The Lower Moreland Township Police Department investigated and identified both Michael Lysaunders Bivans and James Christopher Myers as the two males who entered the residence on May 5, 2012 and held several female adults and children at gun point. The pair demanded the location of a safe they believed was inside the home. They fled with only a computer after it was determined there was not a safe inside the home. With the assistance of the Montgomery County District Attorney's Office, the Citizen's Crime Commission, the Federal Bureau of Investigation, and the United States Marshal's Eastern Pa. Violent Crimes Fugitive Task Force, both males were located and taken into custody. Bivans was apprehended on March 14, 2013 and Myers was apprehended on March 25, 2013.

Both Bivans and Myers are currently incarcerated at the Montgomery County Correctional Facility in lieu of $500,000.00 cash bail. A third unidentified male who is believed to have driven Bivans and Myers to and from the Robbery is still at large.
